

BOSTON COLLEGE

College of Arts and Sciences

<http://www.bc.edu/schools/cas/finearts/news.html>

Marc Breslin '05 (Art History and Literature) is one of three artists represented in Through Painting, on view at Fondazione Rivoli Due in Milan, Italy through February 21. Based in Los Angeles, Marc worked as an assistant to artists Jenny Holzer and Josephine Meckseper in the years after he graduated from B.C. Marc has exhibited his work frequently and internationally over the past five years. For the show at Fondazione Rivoli Due, Marc says that he "treated the basement of the foundation as [his] studio." The work ranges across diverse media – painting, sculpture, video and sound – and includes demolished ceramics, paintings on unstretched vinyl, and sculptures that he describes as "thrown paintings." At left: Pokey's Painting, 2015, acrylic on vinyl and paper. More of Marc's work at marcbreslin.com.